Viennese improvisation guitar/drums duo ALSO return with a superb live recording. Katharina Ernst and Martin Siewert have been working together for more than five years now and continue to enjoy their compelling dynamics. This set is full of fire and thunder but also drawn by some striking and fragile moments thru variety of effects and some delicate lap steel play- true two masters in working on the axis of refracting and reflecting, and throwing it back again.

Katharina Ernst: drums, toys

Martin Siewert: guitars, electronics
