Peter Brötzmann – tenor saxophone, b-flat clarinet, tarogato

Alexander von Schlippenbach - piano

Han Bennink - drums

For the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the legendary Machine Gun recordings at the Lila Eule in Bremen, Peter Brötzmann put together a trio with the Berlin pianist and composer Alexander von Schlippenbach and the percussionist Han Bennink, who already sat on the drums 50 years ago. They were so pleased with the music, that they decided to release it and continue to play gigs as the trio.

Machine Gun was originally recorded in May 1968 by an octet consisting of influential musicians of new jazz and improvised music. The LP was repressed on Cien Fuegos in 2018.

The release happens in cooperation with the venue LILA EULE who celebrates already the 60th anniversary this year.
