Cross-generational Austrian based collaborators of free jazz, improvisation and sound experiments releasing the long awaited debut album of DRY THRUST - the new project by the trio of German pianist and composer Georg Graewe, Martin Siewert (Radian, Tapist, Also) and Dieter Kern (DEK Trio, Bulbul, Fuckhead). Graewe, has since been leading a variety of ensembles - ranging from trio to chamber orchestra formats - which have involved some of the leading instrumentalists in contemporary music. His compositions include works for full orchestras as well as scores for films, theatre productions, and radio drama and have been performed and broadcast around the world.

DRY THRUST is one of the very rare occasions Graewe plays organ instead of piano.

Recorded by Martin Siewert, in June 16-18, 2020 in Vienna.
Mixed & Mastered by Martin Siewert.
Artwork by Georg Graewe.
